News

Thank you for your harvest contributions for Camberley Besom Food Bank.

If you would like to give at other times of the year, there are collections at both Sunday services and also in Sainsburys.

Message from Dawn: From 11th October I will be having my hair coloured maroon and keeping it for about 10 days. Please will you sponsor me? I am doing this to raise awareness of a small charity, doing great work. It is called "Love Moldova". The charity works with teenagers, older women and more. To see details of the charity please go to www.lovemoldova.foundation. Sponsoeship form attached.

Events:

The next TAF links is on 16th October, we will be supporting the charity "Love Moldova". We have Sharon from the charity coming to speak to us. If you are free, please come along.

There will also be visitors from "Hearing Champions" and the community Police.

HWRA are holding a quiz night on 12th October. Teams of 4-6, entry £5 per person (bring your own drinks and snacks). For information heathersidewra.weebly.com or heathersidewra@gmail.com

The Wintershall Nativity will be held on 12th - 16th December. Tickets from <https://www.wintershall.org.uk/nativity-play>, with a discount when booked before 30 October.

Coming up:

4th November – Shoe boxes for Operation Christmas Child; there are boxes at the back of church, please help yourself.

Clemy Gilmore, the regional operations manager, from Operation Christmas Child is coming to speak at both our services on that day. We are planning to take her to lunch at Pine Ridge. If you would like to join us can you please let Yvonne know before the 25th October.

11th November – Remembrance Sunday.

Please check the notice boards at the back of church for other adverts and rotas.
